

Loaned Executive (aka Leader on Loan): Per the Code of Federal Regulations, agencies are allowed to designate "Loaned Executives" from their full-time paid staff to serve the campaign as Loaned Executives. A Loaned Executive takes on an "account" of 12-15 federal agencies, working to ensure these agencies have the plans and resources to run an effective CFC program. This position is great for people looking to build upon their skills in organization, task management, personal and public communication and project management. Federal agencies should consider this a golden opportunity to supplement their management training programs. Loaned Executive need not come from the ranks of management.

Duties include:

- Agency head visits in the summer
- Assist with campaign training
- Delivery of campaign materials
- Pickup pledge forms
- Coordinating speaking engagements or other activities such as CFC rallies
- Public speaking
- Other duties as assigned – some duties may change per region

Qualifications include:

- Passion for CFC (a must)
- Good "people person"
- Organized
- Speaking skills helpful but not required
- Self-motivated